EMAIL 1

Timing: Tuesday, Nov 24 · Early access, engaged subscribers only

Subject: You get Black Friday early

Preview: 25% off everything, 30% off bundles. Subscribers only until Thursday at midnight.

> WHY IT WORKS Early access rewards the people who read the emails and spreads orders before the busiest inbox day of the year. The reason for going early is useful to the customer: a head start before the holiday rush. Instead of a vague sale, it shows one bundle with a crossed-out price, and the P.S. gives first-time buyers a concrete reason to start with the cheapest product.

Hey {{ first_name|default:'there' }},

Black Friday officially starts on Friday. For you, it starts right now.

As a HALDEN subscriber, you get early access to our biggest sale of the year:

- 25% off everything
- 30% off bundles (instead of 25%)

CTA: Shop early access

WHY EARLY?

Two reasons. You read our emails, so you get first pick. And ordering early gives your order a head start before the holiday rush.

THE BEST DEAL IN THE STORE

The Strength Bundle: Whey Isolate + Creatine Monohydrate. A month of protein and two months of creatine.

~~$88~~ $61.60

CTA: Get the Strength Bundle

Early access ends Thursday at midnight. Then the sale opens to everyone.

Train hard,

Erik

Founder, HALDEN Sport

P.S. If you've been waiting for the right time to try creatine, this is it: 25% off brings it to $0.43 a serving, the lowest price we offer all year.

EMAIL 2

Timing: Friday, Nov 27 · Black Friday, all subscribers

Subject: Black Friday is live: 25% off everything

Preview: Plus 30% off bundles. Ends Monday at midnight.

> WHY IT WORKS The offer is in the first three lines, because on Black Friday people decide in seconds. The bundles are matched to a training goal, the same logic as the welcome flow, so readers pick themselves. A third path for single products catches the easiest orders, the guarantee answers the sale-day doubt, and the P.S. explains why this price won't come back.

Hey {{ first_name|default:'there' }},

EMAIL 3

Timing: Monday, Nov 30 · Cyber Monday, last call, all subscribers

Subject: Last day: 25% off ends tonight

Preview: Stock up now. Prices go back to normal at midnight.

> WHY IT WORKS The last-call email has one job, the deadline, and states the exact time in the first lines. Instead of pushing more products, it suggests stocking up on the one already in use and shows the saving as a real number ($27). Bundles get a second chance, thanking existing buyers keeps the tone warm, and the P.S. removes the last doubt: the risk doesn't end tonight, only the price does.

Hey {{ first_name|default:'there' }},

Today is the last day of our Black Friday sale. At 11:59 p.m. ET, prices go back to normal.

If there's a product you use every day, now is the time to stock up.

THE SMART WAY TO SAVE

1. Pick the one product you use every month.
2. Grab two at 25% off.
3. That's two months covered at this year's lowest price.

For example, two tubs of Whey Isolate: ~~$108~~ $81. You save $27, and that's about two months of protein at a scoop a day.

CTA: Stock up before midnight

Bundles are still 30% off too, until tonight.

CTA: See the bundles

Already ordered? Thank you. Your support keeps a small brand like ours going.

Train hard,

Erik

Founder, HALDEN Sport

P.S. Still on the fence? Every order is covered by our 30-day guarantee, so the only thing that ends tonight is the price.
